aProperties Real Estate is pleased to present this magnificent semi-detached house with a natural stone façade and very high ceilings located in one of the best areas of Creu Alta, behind the emblematic Hotel Urpi. It is a house divided in two floors of 515 m², with wide spaces, high ceilings and several terraces. Located in a very quiet and familiar neighbourhood, very close to the centre and all the main services (schools, pharmacies, banks, restaurants...). On the ground floor we find the main entrance together with the entrance of the parking, parking with capacity for a big car. An elongated hall leads us to a large hall with plenty of natural light from a skylight, in this same hall we find two bedrooms, a double room and a single room, a bathroom with shower and the stairs to go up to the first floor. Access to the dining room area, dining room divided into two rooms, living room with fireplace and lounge area with access to the terrace of 80m², next to the living room we find a separate kitchen with access to the terrace and access with stairs to the basement. We access to the first floor by a very wide and stately stairs, on the first floor we have the sleeping area with five bedrooms, four double rooms and one single room. The first room is a double room with access to a terrace of 16 m², we continue with a suite room with complete bathroom with bathtub, water...
