aProperties presents this very particular English type house.

Spectacular garden of 191m2 with drinking water well in the center of Sabadell a few minutes from City Hall. It is a house with very large spaces, high ceilings and special charming touches such as the garage floor that is original, the grand staircase leading up to the second floor, or the entrance door to the dining room. Upon entering, we have on the left hand side a garage with a small storage room with capacity for a large car and a motorcycle. We follow the hallway to the dining room, with a small room attached to the dining room. The wall is a partition wall which allows to extend the dining-living room if desired. From the dining room there is access to the large garden and the kitchen / bathroom (in good condition). The garden has a stone barbecue and a storage room at the end with a vintage laundry room to keep for its charm. Already on the second floor there are two exterior double bedrooms facing the street, two interior single bedrooms and another exterior double bedroom facing the garden. On this floor there is also a well preserved bathroom. Heating, air conditioning in a double bedroom and the dining room, aluminum carpentry. This house was...
