Large semi-detached house for a large family, with large spaces, with attic, patio of 65 m² and garage with connection for electric vehicle, located in Lepanto Street, in the neighborhood of Can Feu in Sabadell. The property is arranged on a plot with a facade of 5 m and a depth of 35 m. The house is distributed from a large central staircase illuminated by a huge skylight that bathes the whole house with natural light and distributes the rest of the rooms with half floors on either side of the staircase. From the street we access the garage which is connected to the hall that leads to the beautiful staircase leading to the lower level where there is an office and a large games room. On the first level we find the fully equipped kitchen with a dining area, which connects to the interior living room that connects to the outdoor patio and a separate laundry room. The patio is equipped with a large sliding awning that allows much of it to be covered or closed as appropriate. At the end of the patio we have a toilet and two rooms, which can be converted into bedrooms or multipurpose spaces. On the second level there is a large living-dining room that has a huge window through which enters a lot of natural light, due to its orientation to the South. On the next level there are two single rooms, one currently used as an ironing area and the other as a bedroom with a single bed, a closet and a...
