Beautiful detached house, rustic style, with a comfortable distribution, practically all on one floor, located in Castellarnau, on a plot of 1987 m².

The property is distributed on the first floor, entering through the hall, which is lined with natural stone, which accesses the main staircase. This separates the day area from the night area. The day area has a large living room, separated into two distinct environments with a beautiful stone arch, and connected to a large kitchen. The kitchen has an office area for breakfast or lunch with circular shape and several windows overlooking the garden, finished in natural stone, which gives it a rustic style. It is equipped with all appliances, with large storage capacity and doors finished in wood. It has an enclosed space for laundry, ironing area or pantry. From the living room and kitchen you can access the garden. The sleeping area has 3 double bedrooms, one of them en suite with bathroom with shower and a second bathroom with bathtub that serves the rest of the bedrooms. All the enclosures are aluminum with double glazing, security locks and automatic blinds and has underfloor heating. On the upper floor there is a huge multipurpose room with sloping ceilings, finished in natural wood, with velux windows...
