Period Residence in the Heart of Historic Downtown Sabadell Delve into Sabadell's rich history as you explore this stunning stately residence, fondly known as "El Bressol de Sabadell," which dates back to the late 12th century. Strategically located at the epicenter of the future city of Sabadell, this majestic mansion was erected by Mr. Pere de Rossa, marking the origin of one of the first houses in Arrahona. This stately building, dating from 1870, has been meticulously restored in 1997 under the supervision of the Sabadell City Council. The house has undergone a comprehensive renovation that has preserved and enhanced its original architectural elements, including exquisite moldings and rosettes that adorn all the rooms, as well as lacquered baseboards. The residence, with a built area of 180 m², offers two patios that guarantee maximum privacy: one of 18 m² and the other of 5 m². Inside, there are four bedrooms, three of which are generously sized and one single. The spacious living room, with its 55 m² of space, is the ideal place to enjoy special moments. The eat-in kitchen, equipped with high-end appliances, opens onto the 18 m² patio, creating a charming corner to enjoy meals outdoors. In addition, the house has two full bathrooms, one of them en suite, a laundry area and a storage room inside. The parquet flooring in light tones and the double...
