We are facing a comfortable home built on one floor where open spaces, light and design are the absolute protagonists.

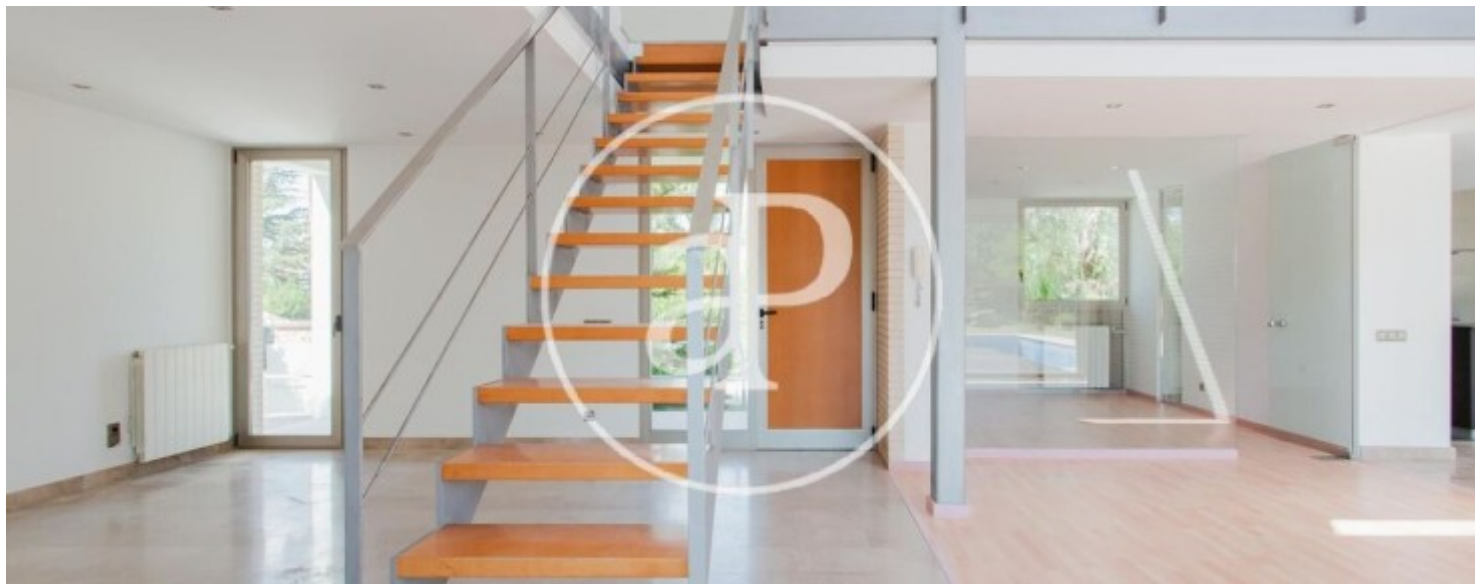

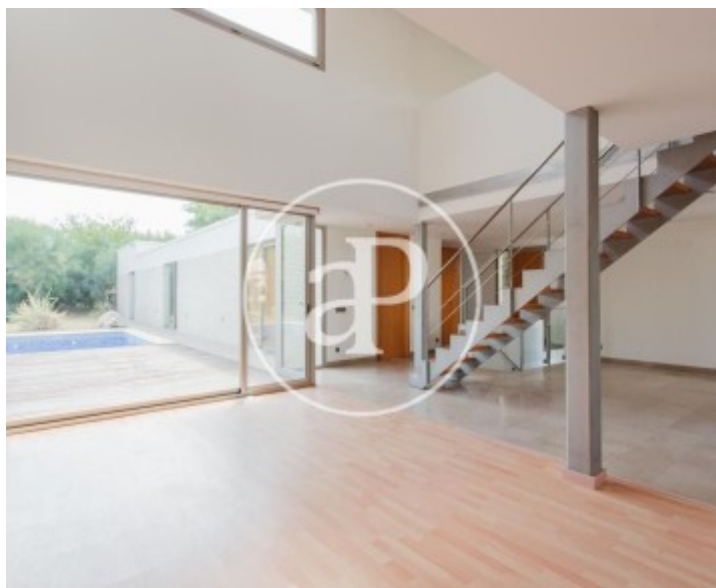

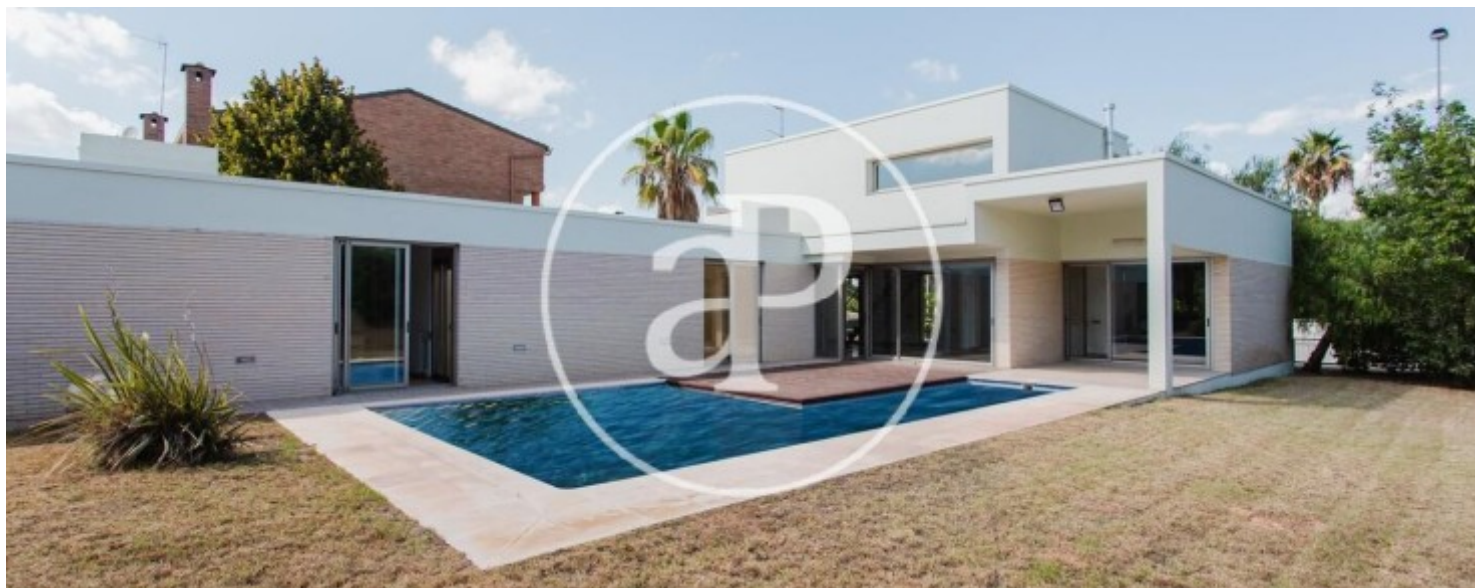

The property, with modern lines, has 386m² built and a plot of 1150m². The house is located on one of the sides of the plot and has a magnificent distribution where the social area of the rest area is perfectly differentiated. In the central area is the living-dining room distributed in three rooms and with direct access to the terrace, garden and pool. The dining area is conceived as an independent space integrated into the living room through glass that has replaced the conventional wall. Next to it we find a modern kitchen with an island and enough space for a table for daily use with direct access to the terrace to be able to enjoy meals outdoors daily. All the rooms in the house are exterior and are dominated by large windows that give them great light. Its south orientation also contributes to a stable luminosity throughout the day. In this social area there is also a modern bathroom with a shower. The night area, located on this same floor, is made up of 3 rooms, although there is the possibility of fitting out 1 or 2 more bedrooms on an upper floor whose space is currently conceived as an office and library. The main bedroom...
