Be the first to live in a unique 5-bedroom home in one of Madrid's newest developments: a recently completed new build with a level of design and quality tailored for those seeking uncompromising luxury, light, and comfort. From the moment you step inside, the impact is immediate: a spectacular entrance hall with triple-height ceilings creates an unusual sense of spaciousness and presence. The home is organized around an elegant and bright social area, featuring a large living-dining room and a semi-integrated kitchen, perfect for enjoying everyday life and entertaining guests while maintaining a clean and contemporary aesthetic. Thermal comfort is ensured to the highest standard with underfloor heating and cooling, providing a consistent, quiet, and efficient temperature year-round. This brand-new home boasts luxurious details and architecture by Joaquín Torres, where every line and proportion is designed to enhance the light, the sense of volume, and elegance. The living area offers five bedrooms, ideal for families or those needing an office, guest room, or multipurpose space without sacrificing spaciousness. Outside, the experience is enhanced by a private residential complex with a swimming pool and amenities, security, and a spacious, convenient, and functional two-car garage. A brand-new, exclusive, and move-in ready property where architecture, technology, and style...
