aProperties Real Estate presents this exclusive independent villa in Ciudalcampo, one of the most sought-after private urbanizations in the north of Madrid.

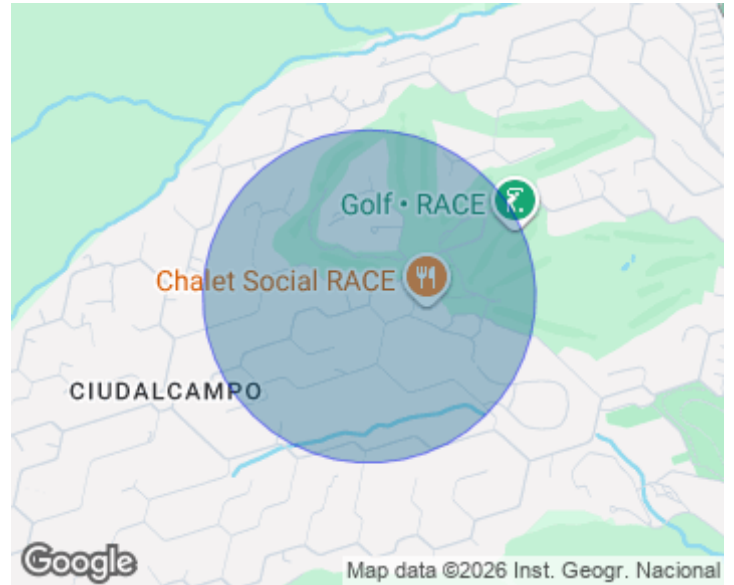

Facing south and surrounded by a consolidated garden with spectacular views, the house stands out for its contemporary architecture of Ibiza style, its large windows and an exceptional luminosity in all rooms. The property has been completely renovated recently, offering a very balanced combination of current design, spaciousness and comfort. The house is distributed on three main floors. On the entrance floor we find a spacious entrance hall, large living-dining room with different environments and direct access to a large terrace connected to the garden, open kitchen with office area, toilet and master bedroom with dressing room and bathroom en suite. The upper floor has two en-suite bedrooms, one of them with a pleasant living or office area. On the ground floor there is a second lounge or playroom, gym, full bathroom and a spectacular heated indoor pool. Also, it has a closed garage for two cars and an independent apartment with living room, kitchen, bedroom and bathroom. A house designed to enjoy large spaces, natural light and leisure areas throughout the year. Some images incorporate virtual...
