We present this magnificent semi-detached house located in the prestigious area of Arxiu, one of the most sought-after locations in Sant Cugat del Vallès.

Its privileged location, just a two-minute walk from the Sant Cugat Centre FGC train station, allows for an excellent connection to Barcelona without giving up the tranquility, quality of life, and residential environment that characterize this area. The property features a built surface area of 188 sqm according to the Cadastre and is distributed over three comfortable floors plus a basement level. It stands out for its south-east orientation, which guarantees a magnificent entry of natural light during a large part of the day, creating warm, bright, and especially pleasant spaces. Upon entering the home, we are welcomed by a spacious entrance hall that distributes the different rooms on the main floor. On this level, we find a spacious, fully equipped eat-in kitchen, ideal for daily life, as well as a practical guest toilet. Next, we access the living-dining room, a spacious and cozy area of approximately 26 sqm that opens directly to the outdoors. Large windows connect this room to a fantastic terrace and a beautiful, recently renovated private garden, featuring new lawn and a careful...
