In one of the most central and exclusive areas of Sant Cugat, we find this nice and cozy ground floor duplex.

The house is divided into two floors, on the first floor and day area we have a nice kitchen with separate water area, a toilet and a spacious and bright living room with access to a nice porch. On the upper floor and night area we find two double bedrooms, a bathroom and a bedroom en suite, all very bright. The house also has a parking space and has a storage room. The finishes of the house have excellent qualities. The property also has alarm, double glazing and parquet floors. The communal area is very large and comfortable, it has a swimming pool for adults and one for children. It is an ideal home for those families who want to live in a residential environment surrounded by gardens but in the center of the city.
