In an enviable quiet environment, but well connected, we let ourselves be surprised by this very complete property.

Just 10 minutes walk from the train station, with excellent access to both public transport and the highway, surrounded by parks, schools and small shops in the area. We access the house crossing the large front garden and its large porch that inevitably transport us to the unforgettable summer days just one step away from enjoying. We enter the house through an elegant hall, which directs us to both day and night areas. We will begin our visit in the majestic double height dining room. From the living room, we access the huge kitchen-dining room and a small room for the water area. On the ground floor, the much desired room that far-sighted people ask for, is surpassed, since this property provides two double rooms of very generous measures and a bathroom that completes them. One of the rooms with private and direct access to the garden. On the first floor, we are pleased to find a second room, a totally private meeting place, where children and adults can enjoy family time. This family lounge-refuge connects all the rooms on this main floor, that is, the two double rooms that share a full bathroom and the suite with access to its private...
