TEMPORAL RENT Fully renovated apartment with an exquisite design and decoration.

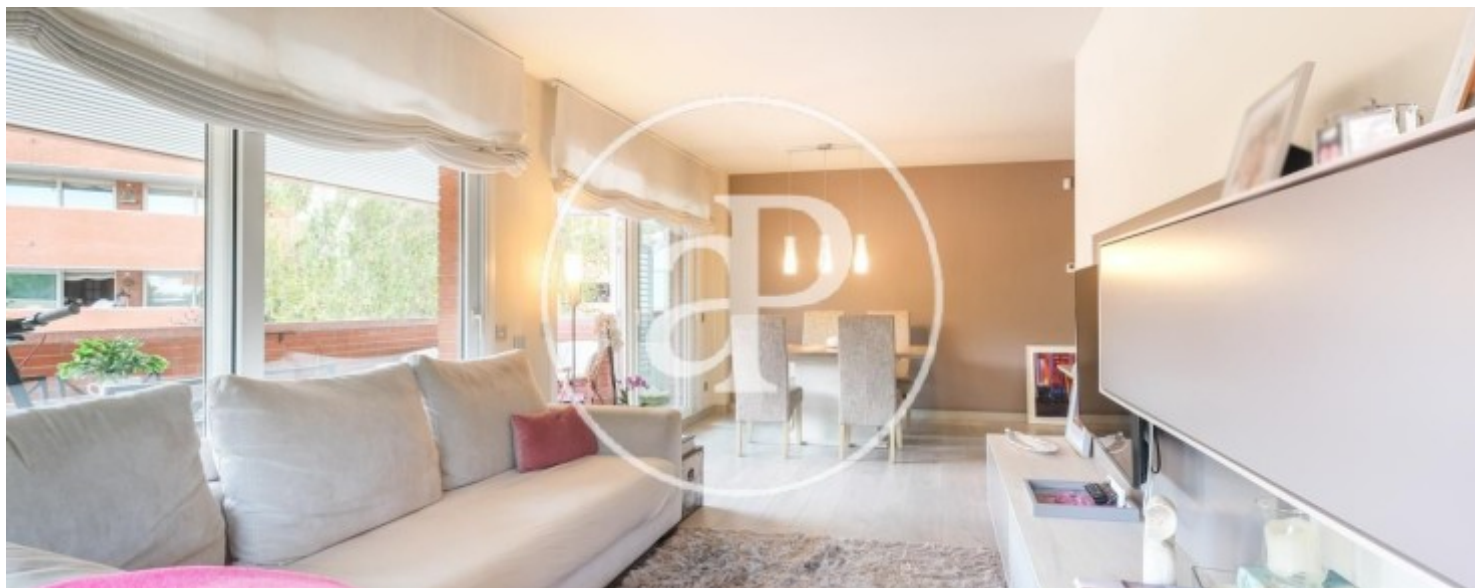

Starting with the delicate combination of colors and qualities, which it maintains from the parquet to each of the furniture designed exclusively for this home. All these details make it a practical, but unique floor. Entering through the hall, which serves as a distribution between the different areas, we already perceive something different. First we access the kitchen with a water area perfectly integrated into the decoration. From the hall we can also go to the living room, large and bright, since it is almost fully glazed. It combines the dining area, living room and access to the terrace where you can put tables, chairs and sofas. And the last step that gives us access to the area at night. A new distributor that takes advantage of spaces with built-in wardrobes and organizes the first two individual rooms that share a full bathroom. And finally the suite with its own bathroom. Throughout the house we find built-in wardrobes and smart corners converted into storage places integrated into the decoration in a discreet and linear way. Also counting that it is located in one of the best neighborhoods of Sant Cugat and that it has landscaped communal areas and a swimming...
