After a beautiful entrance of jasmine and roses, drunk with the lovely aroma, we find this spectacular home.

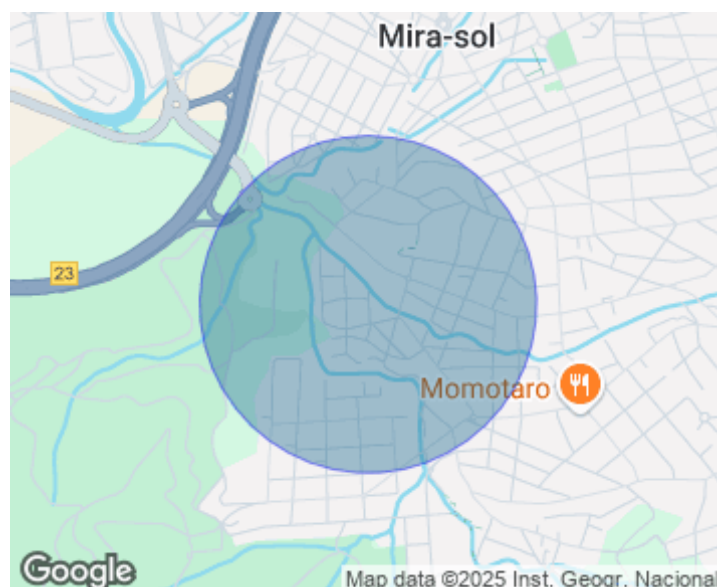

All rooms squander light through large windows. Comfort spaces multiply, both inside and outside. We begin our visit on the ground floor. We walk through the great room with access to the pool. We arrive at the kitchen, with island and high-end riding and also with direct access to the porch that courts the pool. Then, after going through the courtesy toilet, we find two rooms "on the ground floor", both in direct communications with the pool, through glazed access. One of the rooms, the master suite is spacious, bright, with its corresponding dressing room and its imposing bathroom, with a bathtub that will leave you speechless. Through a pristine staircase of white toné siles we access the upper and lower floor. On the upper floor, two more rooms with access to a terrace overlooking the pool and access to a second lounge, and a fully glazed office. On the ground floor, when we think there was only parking, this very complete property will surprise us again. Here we find a storage room converted into a dressing room, pantry, machine room and parking for three cars. And when we again and mistakenly think that this house...
