Just 3 minutes by car from Valldoreix train station, with excellent means of transport and access to Vallvidrera tunnels, 10 minutes from Barcelona.

Located in a residential area, basically family houses, steps from a small nucleus of shops, wineries, bars, bakeries, cafes and some restaurants, parks for children and, of course, schools, institutes both public and private. Neighbor to the natural park of Collserola, nature everywhere. In an environment that delights the most exquisite palate, with enviable views, we find this house at four winds. On an area of more than 3,450 square meters, this house built by its owner and architect in the 70s rises, which enjoys very good views. A house like this surprises us with infinities of spaces, specially designed for family enjoyment. It consists of an endless number of rooms, practically all with views of the immensity, there are several floors in which we find, between 3 and 4 rooms / studios and their corresponding complete bathrooms. All the rooms of the property are characterized by solidity, custom carpentry, and colonial-style cabinets that you can see in our photographic report. On the lower floors, we find a cellar, which is accessed by going through an old door and a stone recovered from a...
