Newly renovated house, located in the most exclusive and quiet area of Sant Cugat, specifically in Masia Rosas (Valldoreix).

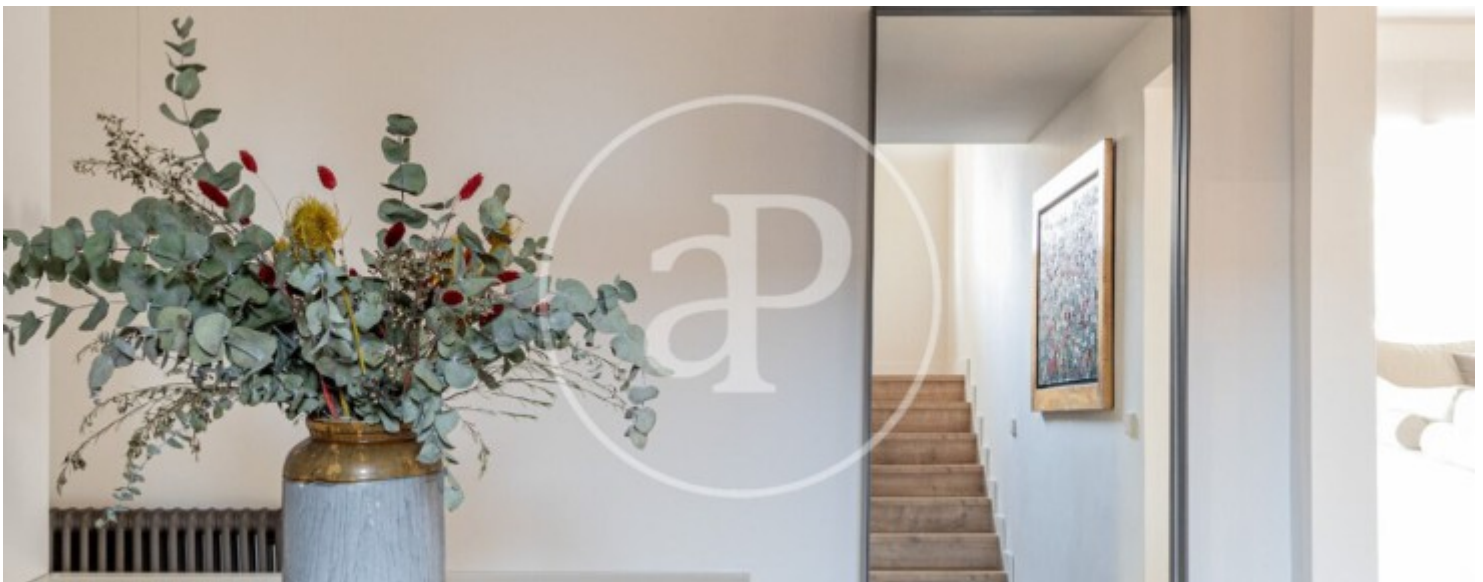

A residential area that enjoys maximum tranquility, in addition the house is located near bus stops, walking distance to railway stations and the city center. Close to an infinite number of sports clubs with private transport. The house stands on a plot of 630 m2 with swimming pool, in an unbeatable elevated corner garden. This house is Mediterranean living at its best, a sense of privilege, warmth and pleasure invades us at every step, with every detail that we discover along the way. The design of the spaces, the quality of the integral reform, the constructive details and the extreme care, together with the excellent distribution, make it a piece of great value. The main floor is presented with a practical and studied distribution, with wide open spaces perfectly connected between them. The whole house has large windows and large windows, which bathe the house with natural light that seeps into every corner. We begin our tour, after stopping pleasantly at the large entrance porch with endless views of the great mountains of Vallés. We move forward, we leave our things in the built-in...
