In the highly sought-after Comte de Vilardaga street, aProperties presents this magnificent 316 sq m single-family residence, distributed over three stories plus a basement level, distinguished by its space, brightness, and privileged natural setting. A home designed to maximize comfort, privacy, and outdoor living with open mountain views. Built in 1988 and updated in 2015, the property merges structural integrity with refined, contemporary interiors. Its versatile rooms are meticulously planned to deliver year-round functional family living. The main level houses a bright and expansive day area. The living-dining room, featuring a cozy fireplace, opens directly onto a private southeast-facing garden—a peaceful environment for outdoor relaxation. Furthermore, there is ample space to install a private s wimming pool, transforming the garden into a true leisure sanctuary. This level is completed by a large independent kitchen renovated five years ago, offering the potential to be opened into the living area for a seamless open-plan flow. A guest rest room serves this level. The upper floor accommodates the night quarters. It features three exterior-facing single bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and ceiling fans, sharing a large full bathroom with a shower. This level also includes a generous exterior master suite complete with its own private bathroom. The top floor hosts a vast attic space...
