Fantastic house with views of the countryside, where you will feel surrounded by nature. It is located on the outskirts of Llubí, a town in Mallorca, known for its agriculture and its cultivation of capers. The property is self-sufficient and environmentally friendly as it produces its own electricity through photovoltaic panels accompanied by a generator. Upon entering, you will find an extensive garden for events and/or meetings, with a barbecue area and a 45 sqm terrace right next to the swimming pool. The house has 212 sqm spread over two floors. The ground floor consists of a complete bathroom which can be accessed from the terrace, a living-dining room, a sitting room perfect for those who love reading and good music, a guest room and a bright open-plan kitchen surrounded by large windows with views and direct access to the garden. On the first floor we can find a small living room, two bathrooms and four bedrooms, all with views to the exterior. One of the bedrooms can also be used as a dressing room or office for those who prefer to work from home. The location is ideal, as it is right next to the road, so it is very well connected with the adjacent towns, such as Muro, Inca, Sa...
