Located in the center of the village of Sineu, from which both Inca and Manacor can be reached in 15 minutes.

Sineu, like the other towns in the Plain of Mallorca, has always had an economy based on agriculture. In fact, the weekly Wednesday market and the annual fair demonstrate the historical importance of farming in Sineu's economy. Sineu is one of the towns in Mallorca with the highest number of restaurants, bars, and cafés in relation to its population. In 2004, Sineu had 37 dining establishments. By 2008, there were five boutique hotels ranging from two to four stars. The house is distributed over two floors. On the upper floor there are two double bedrooms and one single bedroom with a bathroom, all exterior. The staircase is naturally lit by a skylight. On the ground floor there is a spacious kitchen with access to the patio. The living room is large, with a fireplace and air conditioning, and it also has a small space that can be used as an office. The house has its own private well and the possibility of installing solar panels. It is in good condition and the ceilings are new.
