In one of the most exclusive areas of Teià lies this magnificent semi-detached home, a property that combines spaciousness, brightness and the serenity of an environment surrounded by green areas and walking zones. Built in 1989 and meticulously maintained, it offers 262 m² distributed across three comfortable levels, featuring a white exposed-brick façade that provides a clean and contemporary aesthetic. Inside, the marble floors and the warmth of the wooden main door stand out, elements that reflect quality and elegance from the very first moment. The home includes a main suite, four double bedrooms, a service room and an office, as well as a cozy attic with skylight windows that fill the space with natural light. The exterior is equally appealing: a large 350 m² garden provides privacy and a pleasant outdoor relaxation area. The property also includes a garage with capacity for three cars. Located next to bus stops with direct connections to El Masnou and Barcelona, the house enjoys a privileged location within an urbanization with parks and green areas, ideal for those seeking tranquility without giving up proximity to services. A beautiful, comfortable home with timeless charm.
