This is a home that takes you to the pinnacle of sophistication, from the majestic entrance to every panoramic view offered by its windows.

This project features a basement floor, ground floor, and upper floor. The convenient pedestrian access is from the street via stairs that lead to the ground floor level, designed as the day area. “Time to Live” includes a descending ramp that takes you to the basement, where you'll find four parking spaces, reminiscent of an art gallery, aiming to elevate your lifestyle standards. Its 4 en-suite bedrooms, located on the upper floor, make up the night area, while the ground floor is divided into the living room, a study, and the kitchen. Finally, in the basement, besides the garage, you'll find a cinema, multipurpose space, gym, sauna, and wine cellar. The floors are connected by multiple staircases and an elevator for added comfort and elegance. Its fireplace adds warmth and character to this masterpiece, your new home.
