Newly built semi-detached house very close to Sant Jordi Park and the city centre.

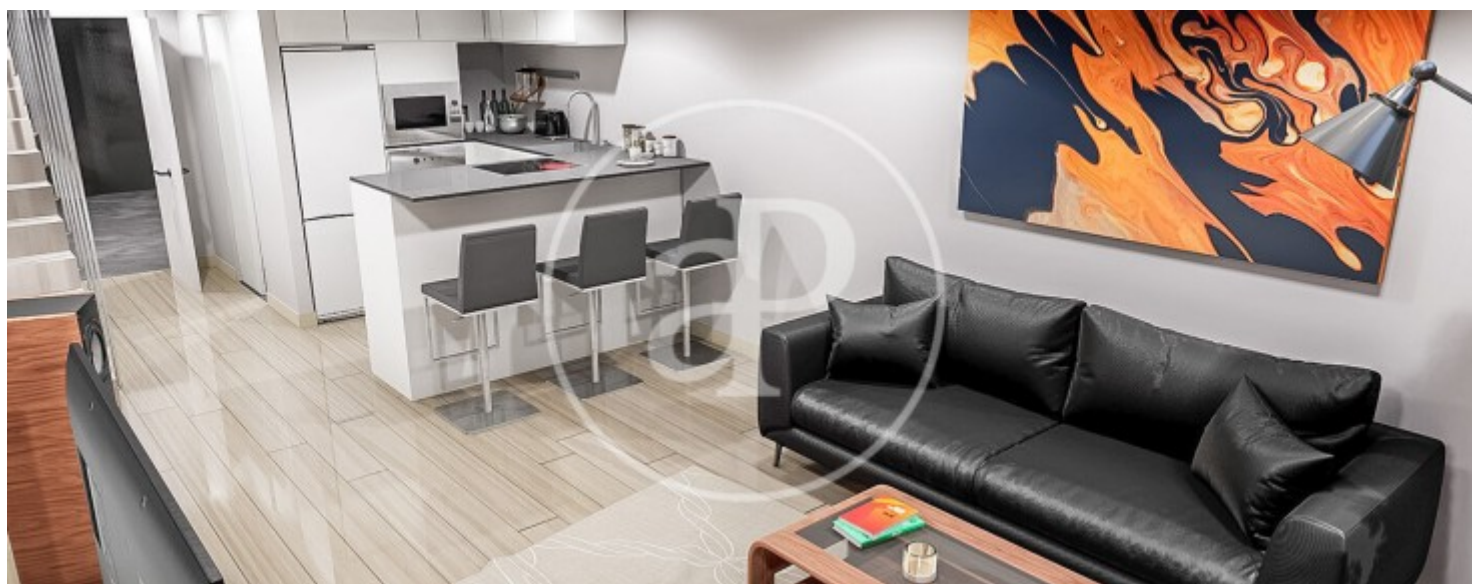

This house, which combines functionality and style, is distributed over two floors. On the first floor we have the garage with direct access to the house where we find a courtesy toilet, the open kitchen island or peninsular type (to taste of the client) and access to a large living room of 34m² with access to a very sunny patio of 30m² facing south. Going up to the first floor we have 1 double bedroom en suite with shower room and access to a 10m² terrace overlooking the patio, 2 exterior single bedrooms, a family bathroom with shower and a utility room for washing machine and tumble dryer. There is also the possibility of an optional studio if required. This fantastic house is strategically located in a quiet area and very close to the town centre, guaranteeing access to all services and 2 minutes from the motorway exit.
