aProperties is pleased to present this spectacular house in the Sant Pere neighborhood of Terrassa.

Built on a plot of 218m² of which 73m correspond to the courtyard, the house was originally designed by Lluís Muncunill i Parellada, the modernist architect of reference in the city of Terrassa in the twentieth century. In the comprehensive reform that was made in 2012, a new and more modern concept was established for this house, without losing original details of the initial construction, tastefully integrated into the design of the house as the stairs, part of its walls with exposed stone or Catalan vaulted ceilings. The house has a basement used as a wine cellar and a laundry room. On the main floor, we find a garage at the entrance for a car and a motorcycle, a toilet and a large dining room with fireplace with access to the patio and kitchen. The entrance to the patio has a covered porch, a lawn area and at the back a tool room with a toilet and barbecue area. Just on top of these rooms there is another terrace of 26m² with very nice views. There are no higher adjoining buildings which gives privacy in the garden area. On the second floor we have a suite with bathroom and dressing room, a double bedroom (with access to an attic), a...
