Unique villa for its characteristics located in the urbanization Santa Apolonia de Torrente, one of the most prestigious residential areas of Valencia.

It was specially designed by a renowned architect, Martinez Peris, a fact that is reflected not only in its typical hacienda features of southern Spain, but also for its incredible garden and exceptional views of the Albufera of Valencia and the Mediterranean Sea, as well as to the Valencian orchard. For someone who enjoys the tranquility and the fact of having a private paradise, this hamlet offers all the services that can be requested to a luxury residence. This exclusive property covers an area of 830 m2 on a land area of 3600 m2 with the possibility of 4000 m2 approx. of extension of annexed plot. The house is distributed over three floors - which are above ground level - with more than 200 m2 of covered terrace and hundreds of meters of outdoor terraces. The ground floor includes garage, hermitage, office and cellar. The second floor has an extraordinary living room, kitchen, meeting room and adjoining rooms. The third floor has rooms and bathrooms as well as private terraces. The characteristic, however, that highlights this property is its impressive garden with lake, fountains and waterfalls, as...
