In one of the most sought after areas of Valencia, Campanar and a few meters from the Hipercor Shopping Center, we find this spacious and renovated house of 100m2, three bedrooms and two bathrooms.

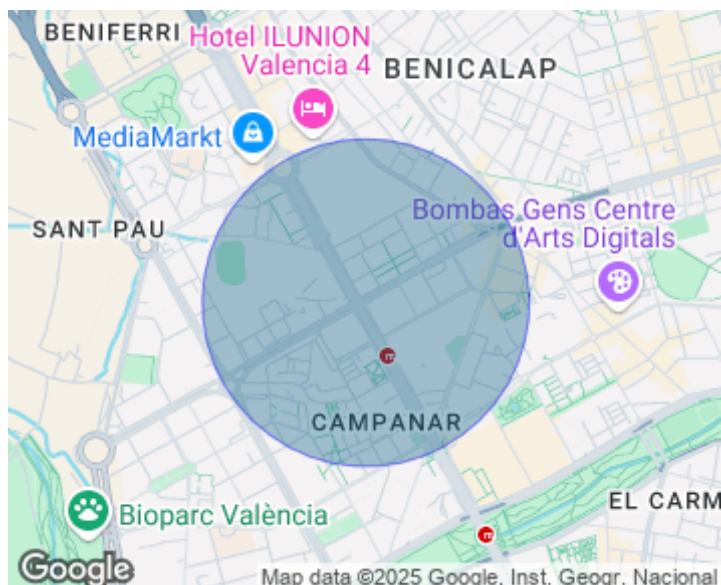

The house has been completely renovated and we highlight this reform, the kitchen and two bathrooms. The property is furnished in its entirety with colonial style furniture, in very good condition. The floor is exterior and through its large windows of the living room, enjoys a great luminosity. Located this house, in a privileged enclave, we can assure that even being a very quiet neighborhood, it has all kinds of communications, whether metro bus and taxi. The proximity to two large shopping centers, comes to provide it with all the necessary services and communications essential to develop the displacements to work or leisure, without any additional effort. Located in the Campanar area, this house combines the tranquility provided by its location, with the good communications available and that can take us to the center of Valencia in a few minutes. We emphasize, in addition. its proximity to the garden of the old course of the river Turia, place where we can enjoy long walks between nature, in the urban area of the city of Valencia.
