This magnificent renovated apartment is located on Cuenca Street, in a privileged area close to the city center.

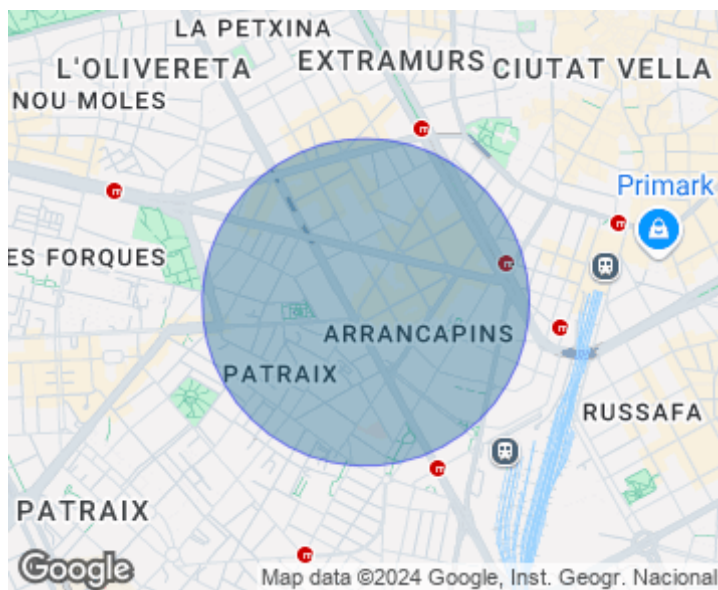

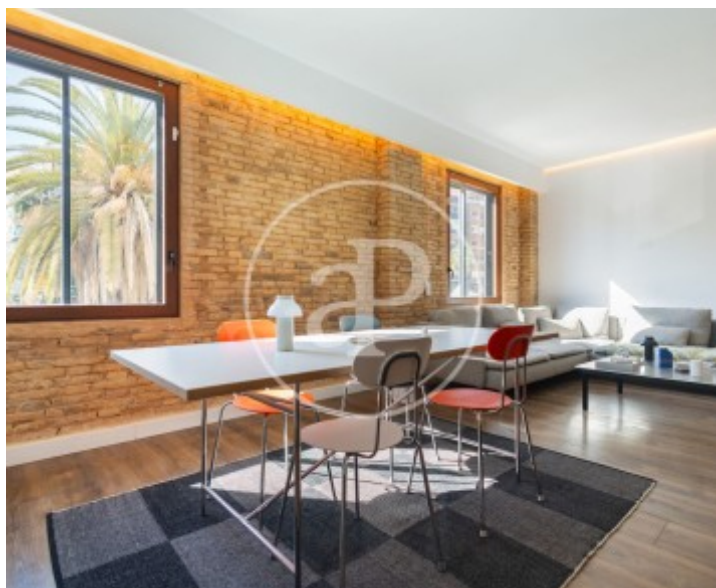

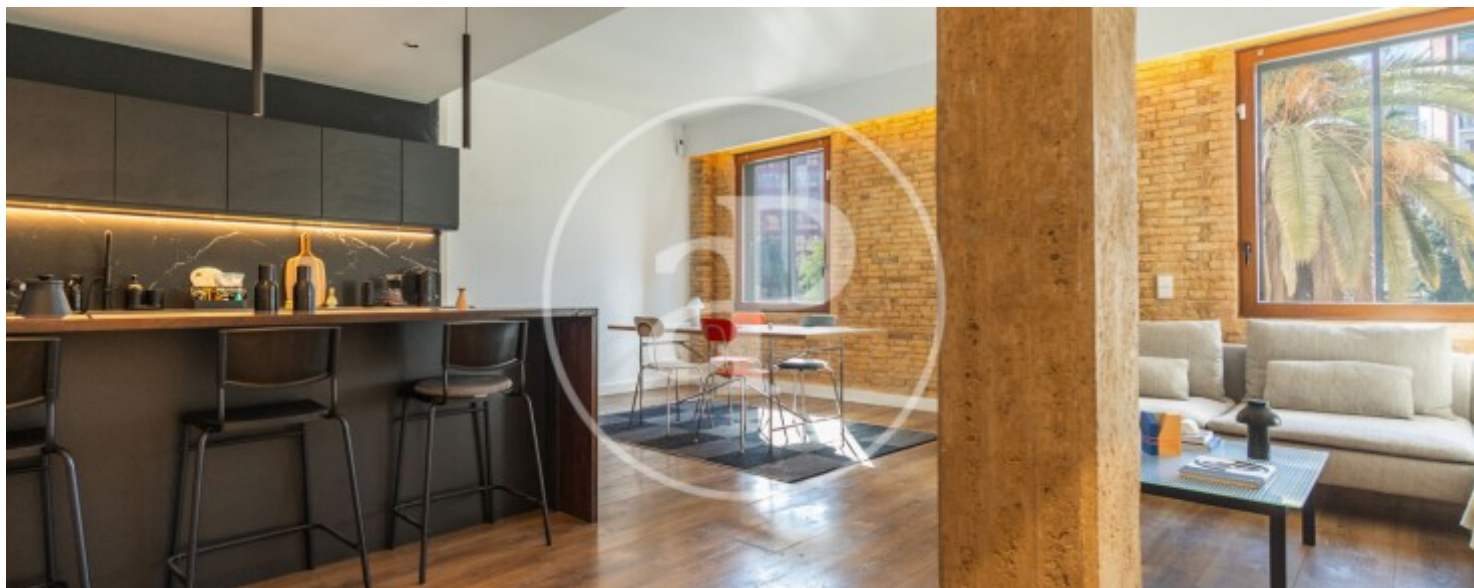

Located in the comfortable neighborhood of Arrancapins, this home offers a perfect combination of comfort and accessibility, with all the services at your fingertips. The home has been completely renovated by a team of architects, who have managed to masterfully fuse a modern style with the charming beauty of old brick. Natural light floods every corner of the apartment, creating a cozy and vibrant atmosphere. The kitchen open to the living room has been designed with top quality materials, adding a touch of style and modernity to the space. In addition, it has double soundproof windows that face the street, guaranteeing tranquility and comfort. The distribution of the property includes two comfortable bedrooms and an external bathroom. The laminated wood decoration, which goes from the ceiling to the floor, is discreetly integrated into each space, from the entrance to the living room-dining room-kitchen. The main room has a separate toilet and shower, fully integrated into the room itself. Highlighting the design, the house is distributed around a beautiful interior patio terrace, with access from three sides and an outside laundry room. The...
