aProperties presents the sale of an 831 sqm property, with the possibility of conversion to residential use, free of encumbrances and up to date with all payments.

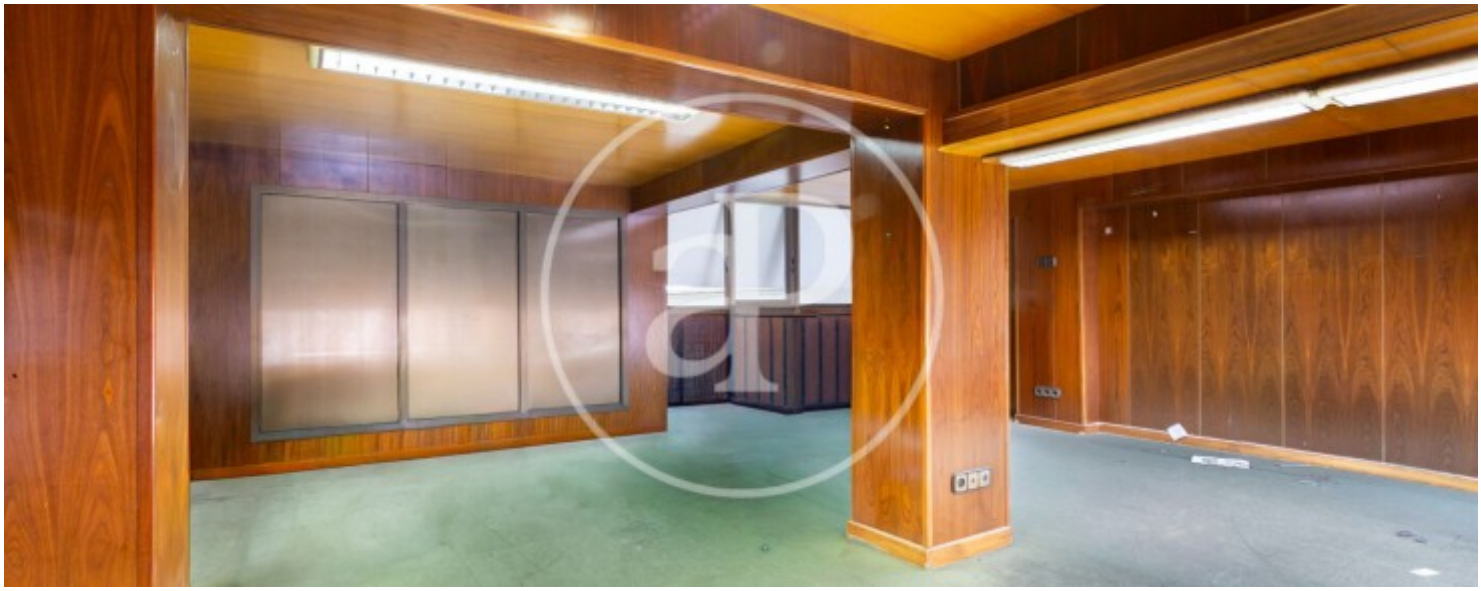

The development includes four ground-floor units, each with its own cadastral reference, interconnected with one another. The property offers the possibility of creating a landscaped communal area with natural light, designed for the development of four residential units where shared spaces can be enjoyed within the city. The project is conceived as a compact, high-quality residential proposal, prioritizing design, functionality, and connectivity over larger dwelling sizes, resulting in efficient, bright, and well-proportioned spaces. The property is located in the Benicalap district, within a well-established urban environment with access to all services and close to the beaches. It benefits from excellent connections via tram and bus, with direct access to the city center, as well as proximity to schools, shops, supermarkets, and parks. Do not miss this investment opportunity, aimed at a growing demand profile with great potential. For more information, please do not hesitate to contact us.
