aProperties presents, in the heart of the Carmen neighborhood in Valencia and just a few minutes' walk from the city center, this charming 2-bedroom property.

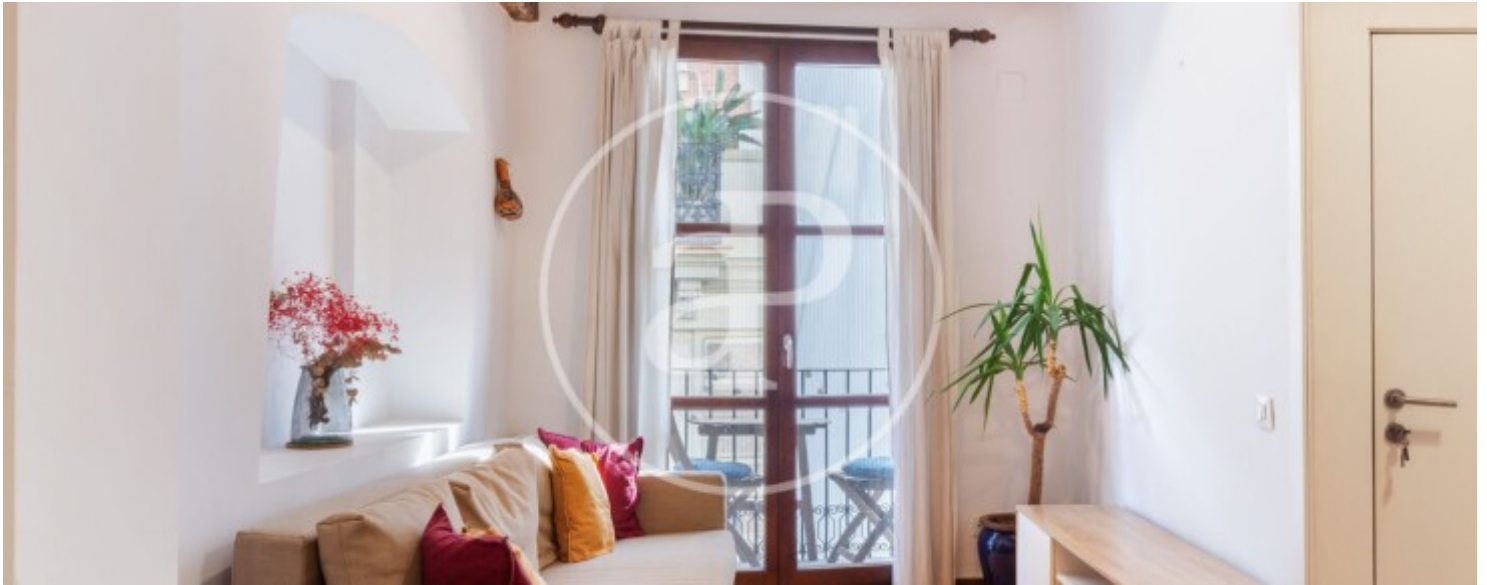

Located on the second floor of a building without an elevator, the property stands out for its prime location on a pedestrian street next to the museum, in one of the most vibrant and cultural areas of Valencia. The apartment features a balcony facing the street and an interior terrace equipped with a dining table, perfect for enjoying the outdoors. The master bedroom includes a double bed and direct access to the terrace, while the second bedroom, currently used as an office, has enough space to accommodate a second bed if desired. The property is offered fully furnished, with a kitchen equipped with all necessary appliances, ready to move into. In summary, this is a charming traditional apartment in the Carmen neighborhood, ideal for temporary stays under short-term contracts, offering an excellent opportunity to experience life in one of the city's most iconic areas. The lively El Carmen neighborhood is part of the old town, home to the Serranos Towers and the Quart Towers, former medieval gates that were once part of the city walls. Its narrow streets are filled with...
