aProperties presents this magnificent property located in the very heart of Valencia's historic center, in one of the city's most charming and culturally rich areas. With a built area of 120?m² according to the land registry, the property is functionally and harmoniously laid out, featuring a spacious living-dining room, a fully equipped independent kitchen, three double bedrooms, and two full bathrooms—one of them en suite, integrated into the master bedroom. All rooms receive natural light, creating a warm and welcoming a tmosphere. The property also includes four balconies, offering a direct connection to the urban environment, open views, and excellent cross-ventilation. These balconies add both aesthetic and functional value, enhancing the sense of space and brightness throughout the interior. The building, originally constructed in 1850, underwent a careful exterior restoration and complete interior renovation in 2000. During this process, valuable historical architectural elements were preserved, such as a medieval arch and the original staircase, which now serve as witnesses of the past and lend...
