Classic charm and full renovation next to Ruzafa.

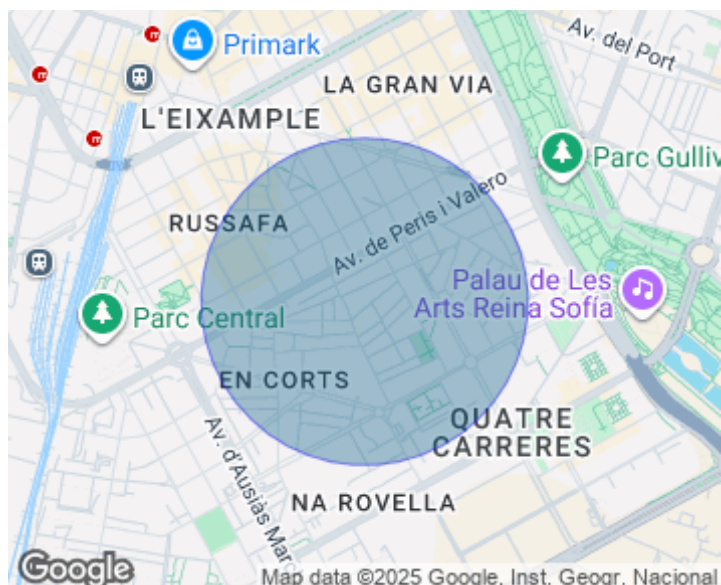

aProperties presents this magnificent home located on the first floor of a classic building in the En Corts neighborhood — an area that preserves the essence of Valencia's traditional districts, with low-rise, peaceful buildings full of character, just steps from Ruzafa and perfectly connected to the city center. The building does not have an elevator, but its character and location make it an excellent opportunity for those who value architectural charm and a quiet community atmosphere. The property has been completely renovated with great taste and high-quality materials — including a new electrical installation — offering a comfortable, functional space ready to move into. Upon entering, you are welcomed by a spacious and bright living-dining room with an open-plan kitchen, leading out to a pleasant private terrace, perfect for enjoying Valencia's fine weather. In the more private area of the home, you'll find two double bedrooms, both exterior and spacious, along with a generously sized full bathroom, ideal for daily use. A perfect property for investors or first-time buyers looking for a home in an urban setting, with all services nearby, without giving...
