aProperties presents this exclusive property in the iconic La Pagoda building, next to Viveros, the Monforte Gardens, and facing the Turia Garden, the true green lung of the city of Valencia.

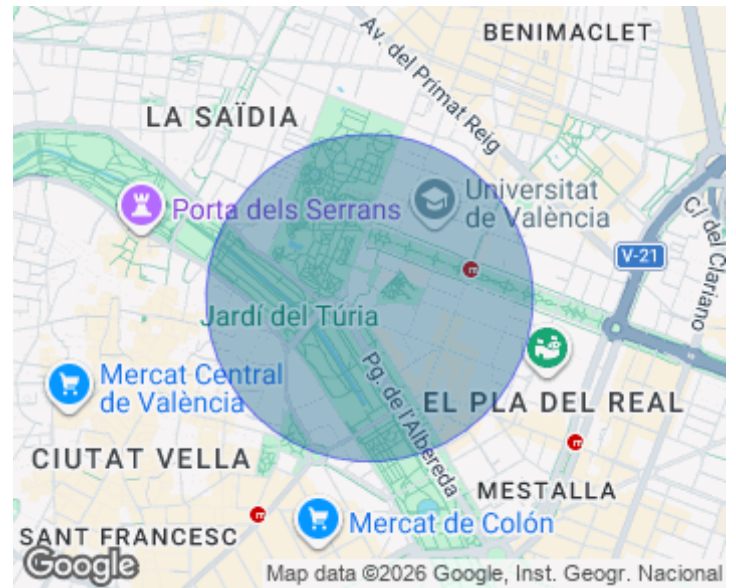

This exclusive 14-storey residential building features three access cores and a 24-hour concierge service. Its façade and communal areas have been completely refurbished recently. The entrance halls and common areas stand out for their high architectural and aesthetic value. This iconic building, considered one of the treasures of Valencian architecture, was built in the 1970s by Antonio Escario, José Antonio Vidal, and José Vives on the ruins of the Ripalda

Palace. Its structure, clearly inspired by Japanese design, continues to shine today with the same intensity with which it was conceived, as one of the most luxurious towers in the city. The property, fully renovated by the prestigious architect Pepe Cabrera in 2017, also offers luxury and comfort. Designed for a modern and functional lifestyle, it is distributed across spacious, versatile areas that provide panoramic views and abundant natural light. With two access points—main and service entrances—the property features a large entrance hall with built-in wardrobes equipped...
