Fantastic apartment with reform in the Gran Vía neighborhood of Valencia.

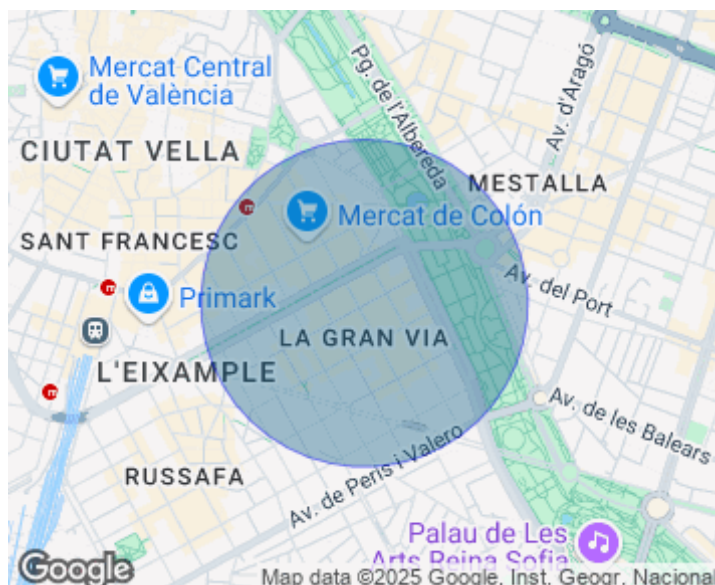

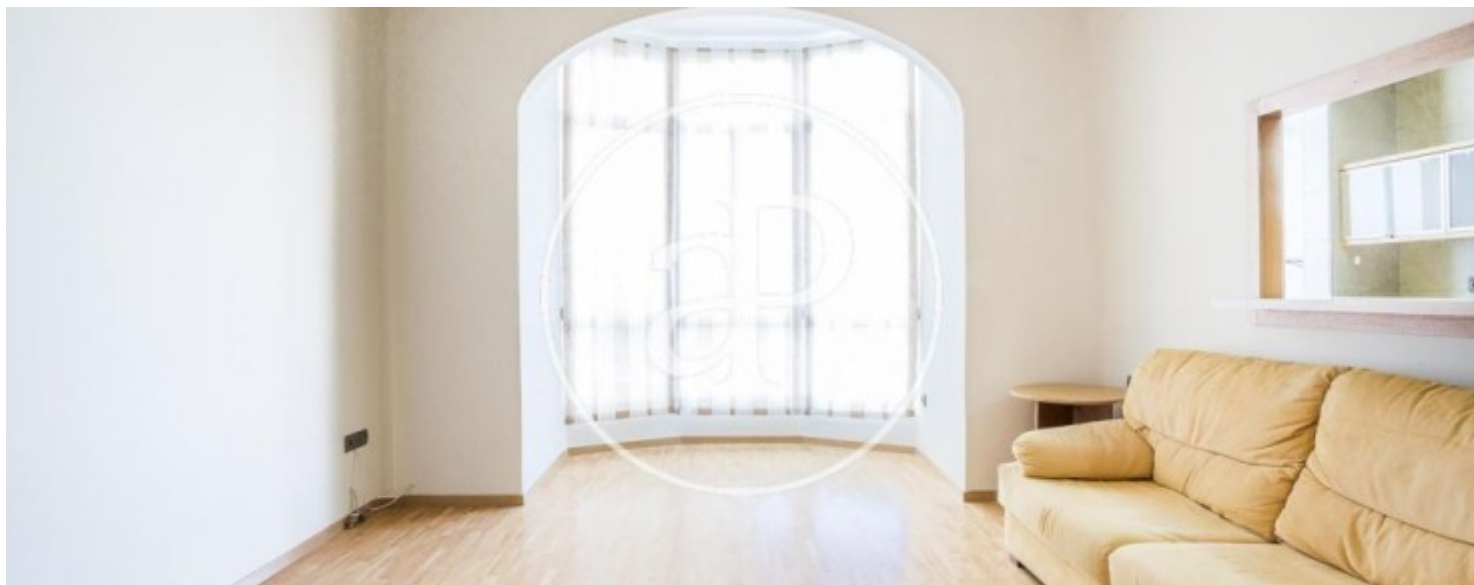

Located on the second floor of a classic building a few steps from the Gran Vía Marqués del Túria, this fabulous apartment renovated with quality first quality, which keeps the high ceilings with sizes so characteristic of the Eixample constructions. The house has a logical distribution in which the entrance hall gives access to two exterior bedrooms, one with a viewpoint that protrudes from the facade and the other, the master bedroom with dressing room and bathroom with shower en suite, also has a small balcony. On the other hand, advancing down the corridor, there is a third medium-sized room and a bathroom with bathtub. One of the rooms facing the street has a viewpoint that protrudes from the facade that gives a characteristic touch to the property. The master bedroom also has a high quality dressing room. In the final and most interior part of the house, there is the large living room and kitchen connected by a hatch window. The kitchen is fully equipped and has a large window that provides plenty of light. This beautiful apartment is located in the Eixample district, one of the most popular areas of the city of Valencia. Because of its...
