Beautiful and bright modernist house with terrace next to Jardines del río Turia.

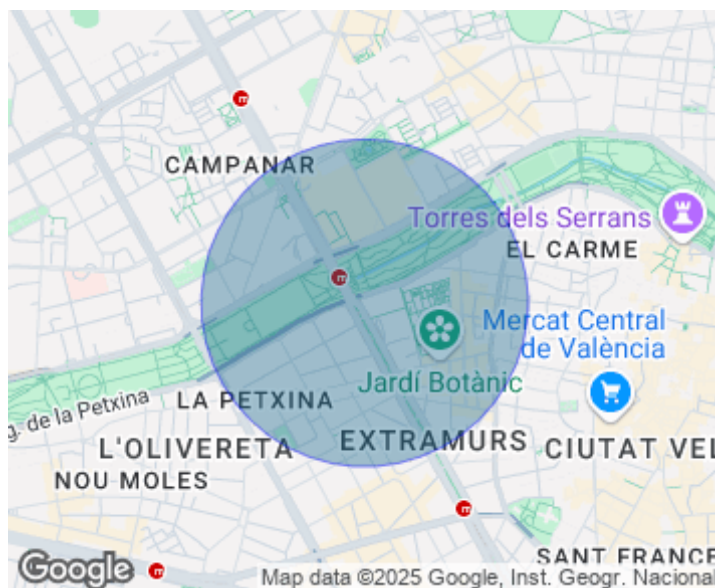

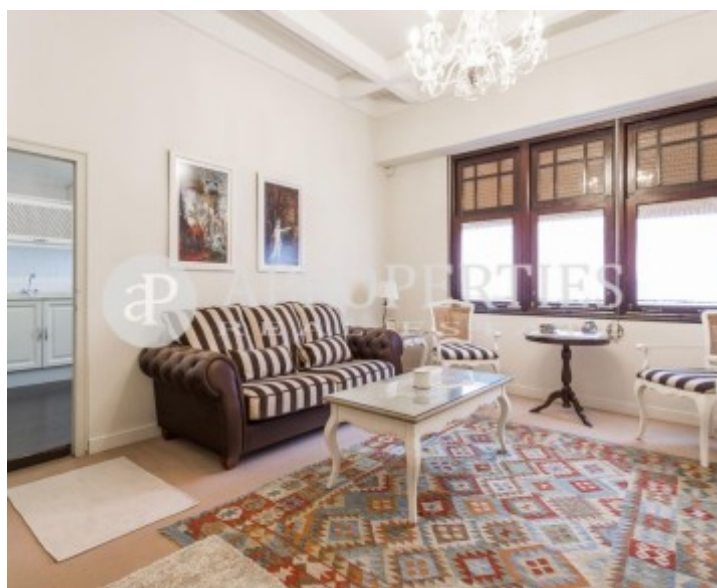

In a very quiet area in the neighborhood of La Pechina, this wonderful house is located on the first floor overlooking the gardens of the River Turia. Very well distributed, this property consists of high ceilings with original carvings and custom moldings, 108m² built and hall. On the right we access two large rooms that overlook the main facade with balconies. In the central part two bedrooms: one double and one single, a bathroom with shower and on the left very spacious living-dining room, kitchen with gallery and a toilet next to the terrace of 20 m², ideal to condition and enjoy it to the maximum. This cozy and spacious home preserves some beautiful original hydraulic mosaic floors in perfect condition. In addition the two balconies to the street, the terrace and the amplitude of the rooms provide light and relief to this charming home. The facade has been properly maintained and the building's facilities have been completely renovated. The building has a common storage room on the ground floor for all owners to store bicycles etc ... This wonderful property is located in the Pechina area, and has all the services in the immediate vicinity. On the other hand,...
