aProperties presents this property located in Les Tendetes, an established neighbourhood in Valencia known for its proximity to the former Turia riverbed and its wide range of everyday amenities.

The property offers 79 m² of built area, comprising two bedrooms, one bathroom, a living-dining room, a kitchen and an entrance hall. The apartment has been renovated and features a functional layout, with various possibilities for adapting the space to suit the needs of its future owners. Located on the second floor of a building with a lift, the apartment is an interior-facing property and represents an attractive option both for first-time homebuyers and for those looking to invest in an established area of Valencia. One of its main selling points is its location opposite the former Turia riverbed, a privileged setting for walking, exercising and enjoying extensive green spaces. The property is also next to the Official School of Languages and just a 10-minute walk from Nuevo Centro shopping centre. Les Tendetes offers a wide variety of shops, supermarkets, local amenities and public transport options, providing convenient connections to the rest of the city. Its proximity to areas such as Campanar and Valencia city centre makes it a practical place...
