Great opportunity to live in the Mestalla area in one of the most requested and demanded areas of Valencia for its quality of life.

The house has 100 m2, which are perfectly distributed in a large master bedroom and one with two single beds with access to a spacious and pleasant terrace. A comfortable and beautiful living room that is divided into two areas by a glass and curtains to enjoy a secluded space of rest. The kitchen is independent and fully equipped with appliances and has access to another individual interior terrace. A full bathroom with built-in shower plate and a courtesy toilet. The house is made with high quality materials, wooden floor and air conditioning by Splits installed throughout the house. Included in the price is a parking space. The location of the house is unbeatable, since it is located a step away from the lungs of Valencia as the Turia River and in the heart of the city. The area has all the services and public transport necessary so it is very well connected. For more information, do not hesitate to contact us, we will be happy to assist you.
