In the demanded neighborhood of Mestalla, we find this incredible home, in the attic category, which is located on the seventh floor, with views of the Mestalla football stadium and the Aragón avenue. The house is renovated with quality materials, which gives the house a select characteristics, with climalit windows, cherry doors and porcelain floors of first quality. Upon entering we find the living room, which connects with a double room, the terrace, a bathroom and the corridor that connects with the other rooms of the house. The living room is quite spacious and connects with the terrace, which gives the option of being covered or not, thus giving multiple options, changing according to the season or weather conditions. In the same room as the living room we find a double room, with fitted wardrobes and a service with space for washing machine and dryer. Already in the other room of the house, connected by a hall from the living room we find the kitchen, very well distributed and with very good quality furniture, a single room and the master bedroom with dressing room and bathroom en suite, although it gives the option enter the bathroom from the hallway. This magnificent home is located in the area of Mestalla, just ten minutes from downtown, such as Colón Street or Gran Vía Marqués del Turia. With direct access to metro, bus or ValenBisi, this house is very well...
