In the heart of Pla del Remei, next to the emblematic Mercado de Colon we find this excellent house with careful design reform to detail.

Located in a beautiful building at the end of the 18th century, we will find an exquisite property in which a spectacular design reform has been carried out. The property consists of a large hall that gives way to a living room with two balconies that fall to the facade, this house has four bedrooms and three bathrooms. One of the rooms is the master suite that is accompanied by an elegant marble bathroom and its corresponding dressing room, this room has a balcony that falls to the courtyard of apples, of the remaining three rooms there is another that has its bathroom, its kitchen office stands out for its successful combination of elegance and modernism, this house also has an ironing room and a storage room of 25m on the roof. In the design of this property, even the smallest details have been taken care of, using the highest quality materials. Located in one of the noble areas of the city of Valencia, a few meters from the Xerea neighborhood, included in the Pla del Remei neighborhood, with all the necessary services to provide the necessary comfort.
