This magnificent stately home, located in the heart of Valencia, next to the emblematic Town Hall Square, the North Station, the bullring and Colón Street, offers an exceptional living experience.

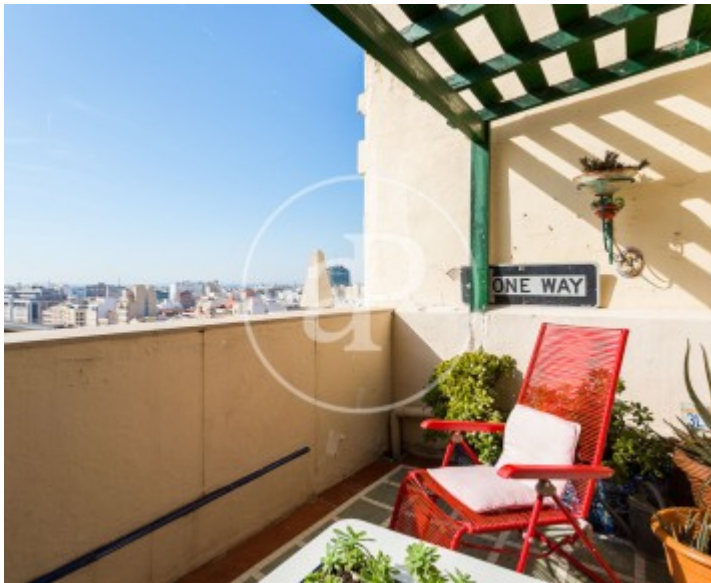

With its impressive 217 m2 built area and two exclusive terraces that provide spectacular views, this bright apartment retains its charming Art Deco style, which gives it a unique atmosphere. Upon entering, we are greeted by a large hall that is integrated with the living-dining room, made up of three different areas, with access to the terrace and a spacious office illuminated by large windows. The kitchen, although it has been renovated, retains characteristic details of Valencian cuisine of the time. In the rest area, we find four bedrooms, three of them doubles, two bathrooms and a toilet, as well as a practical storage room. The house has air conditioning in the south area, radiator heating, city gas supply, a new elevator and concierge service for greater comfort. Located in an environment surrounded by the best restaurants, bars, cafes and luxury shops, with an unbeatable public transport connection that includes the train station, buses and metro, this property represents an exceptional opportunity to live in the vibrant heart of Valencia.
