In Monte de la Villa—the new residential development in El Bosque, right next to the European University of Madrid—aProperties presents a spectacular new-build semi-detached house.

It offers 410 m² of built area situated on a flat 525 m² plot. Premium materials, three-meter-high ceilings, and exceptional natural light define this five-bedroom home, designed for those seeking a brand-new property where no detail has been overlooked. The main floor features a spacious living-dining area (over 60 m²) with an integrated kitchen, opening onto a large porch and a garden with a private saltwater pool. This level also includes an additional bedroom—or sitting room—and a full bathroom. Upstairs, there is an en-suite bedroom and two further bedrooms sharing a bathroom, alongside the master suite, which boasts a walk-in closet and private bathroom; all these rooms have access to a large shared terrace, and there is also a convenient laundry room. The open-plan basement, complete with its own full bathroom, offers a versatile space suitable for use as a home cinema, gym, or game room. State-of-the-art features—including home automation, underfloor heating and cooling, photochromic glass, and security...
